

LATE WINTER, 2006 NEWS

Let's hear it for the winter Olympics!

UPCOMING EVENTS

March 16 – Life sciences for breakfast - “Drug Development: Deals and Disclosure” with Wilmer Hale. Details are on the website and the invitation will be forthcoming - mark your calendars for this program!

April 26 – The second annual Professional Responsibility Awards Dinner, honoring six local law students who have made an exemplary commitment to ethics in the course of their study of law. While seating at the dinner will be largely limited to the law schools and sponsors, a limited number of seats will be available to our members on a first-come, first-served basis. We will inform you by email when these are available.

May – it looks like we will be offering a program on arbitration and mediation – this is not confirmed, but details will be posted on the website and by invitation.

June – Intellectual property with Edwards Angell Palmer & Dodge in Boston. Again, details will follow!

Additionally, we are planning another e-discovery program in New Hampshire, similar to the very popular one we did in Rhode Island this past December. We will keep you informed!

We have had a number of excellent programs already this winter –

“Loading Up Your Litigation Toolbox” in New Hampshire with sponsors Bottomline Technologies, Herrod & Associates and Haley & Aldrich,

“Hot Topics in Employment Law” with Jackson Lewis, and most recently,

“Sweet Charity or Sour? Avoiding Legal Pitfalls in the Nonprofit World”, a truly excellent program by Nutter McClennen & Fish.

If you missed any of these programs and would like to receive a set of the program materials, please email acc-northeast@verizon.net.

Board member Dennis Hart and Derek Davis of Nutter at the “Sweet Charity” program.

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND

The Boston University School of Management is holding another session of the Pocket MBA for Lawyers – scheduled for June 19 – 23, 2006. A number of ACC members attended the January program and found it to be outstanding. The program was featured in the February 10, 2006 edition of the Boston Business Journal as part of a larger series on the role of corporate counsel. Think Twice Video Series – ACC Member Discount

Want the inside story on insider trading? The “Think Twice” video series, developed with input from the SEC Enforcement Division and ACCA members are used extensively as a leading training tool for educating employees and executives about insider trading and tipping. Viewers will learn and remember through dramatic stories:

- What insider trading is
- Penalties and consequences
- How the SEC discovers illegal activity
- What happens if illegal tipping or trading is suspected
- How SEC investigations are conducted
- Insider trading prevention
- Why employees need to “think twice” before using confidential information to trade stocks or tip others

ACC-Northeast members receive a 10% discount on the videos. For more information, go to www.insidertradingvideos.com or email acc-northeast@verizon.net for a flyer and order form.

Are you interesting in becoming involved?

The Northeast Chapter is looking for members who are interesting in serving on committees for pro bono, advocacy, programs, and membership. It will require a small time commitment and creative ideas on your part to help our chapter best serve the membership! If you are interested in working with the chapter, please contact our Executive Director, Louise Rothery at acc-northeast@verizon.net

ACC-Northeast has been offered an opportunity for discounted attendance for our members at the RainDance Conference, which is put on by the Legal Sales & Service Organization (LSSO). LSSO's RainDance is the industry's only leadership conference exclusively focused on driving revenue and building client loyalty.

This year's conference will be held on June 14-16 at the Hyatt Regency in Reston, Virginia which is right outside of Washington, D.C.

ACC-Northeast members are being offered a rate of $755 if they register before April 15 (as opposed to $905 for a non-LSSO member). Use the passcode LSSORD6 with your online registration to receive the discount. For more information, go to legalsales.org.

JOBFIND – don't forget to post your in-house positions on the ACC-Northeast JobFind! Send them to acc-northeast@verizon.net for posting.
