

Autonomy, Inc.

Biography For: Deborah Baron
Position: Vice President, Legal & Compliance

Deborah Baron is Vice President, Legal and Compliance at Autonomy Inc. where she is responsible for advanced electronic discovery, assisting clients with eDiscovery strategy and workflow, and developing industry standards and best practices. Ms. Baron is on the Advisory Board of the Electronic Discovery Reference Model (EDRM) and InsideCounsel Legal Education, and is a member of The Sedona Conference® WG1 on ESI and WG6 on International discovery. She conducts MCLE courses nationally, and is an author and speaker on best practices in eDiscovery, Compliance and Information Governance.

Prior to joining Autonomy Ms. Baron was a Director and lead product strategy for ZANTAZ Corporation, the market leader in cloud based compliance and discovery solutions. Prior to that she held the position of Group Manager, Email Products at Lotus Development/IBM and has held domestic and international management positions with Hewlett Packard. Ms. Baron has an MBA from the Kellogg Graduate School of Management, Northwestern University and a BA in economics from Occidental College. Ms. Baron and her firm provide software and hosted services to assist attorneys and organizations in processing, search and management of electronic data for compliance, litigation and operational efficiency.