

Carla Swansburg:

Carla Swansburg is Senior Counsel with RBC Law Group. She manages complex litigation involving Royal Bank Financial Group and many of its subsidiaries throughout the world, including RBC's network of International Wealth Management offices throughout the US, Europe, Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean. Carla handles commercial claims and class actions relating to fraud, banking, securities, breach of contract and trust among other matters. She frequently leads or supports internal investigations including multijurisdictional matters and advises business partners on litigation risks. Carla was called to the bar in Ontario in 1995, and after articling with Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt she practiced in their litigation group for several years. She joined Ogilvy Renault in 2001 then joined RBC in early 2005. Carla frequently speaks on topics such as ADR, privilege, litigation management and e-discovery. Carla is the President of the Ontario Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel. In her spare time she enjoys spending time with her children and her horses.
