

Craig Carpenter, is Vice President and General Counsel at Recomind.

Mr. Carpenter has extensive experience in the eDiscovery, enterprise software and information security industries, and is a frequent speaker and panelist at industry events like ILTA, LegalTech, the Wall Street Technology Association, ISSA, ARMA, Interop, RSA Conference, KM for Legal, CompTIA, and numerous other eDiscovery events. Mr. Carpenter is also a leading advocate with key industry groups like the Sedona Conference and the EDRM Project. Mr. Carpenter's articles on key issues in information security, compliance, policy management, knowledge management and eDiscovery have been published in many top publications, including Information Management, Business Computing Society, EDRM Quarterly, eDiscovery Advisor, ILTA Magazine, KM World, TODAY Magazine, Processor Magazine, and DM Review. Additionally, Mr. Carpenter is an adjunct professor at the University of San Francisco where he teaches graduate classes on content management, digital rights management (DRM) and high tech marketing.

Mr. Carpenter began his career as a corporate litigation attorney with Ropers, Majeski, et al. Mr. Carpenter received his JD and MBA from Santa Clara University and his BA in history and political science from UCLA.