

Evan Slavitt

Vice President for Business and Legal Affairs
AVX Corporation

Evan Slavitt attended Yale University (B.A, M.A. Economics) and Harvard Law School where he was an editor of the Harvard Law Review. Mr. Slavitt served as a trial attorney in the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and as an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts. He then was a trial attorney in private practice in Boston, Massachusetts for twenty years. Currently, Mr. Slavitt is Vice President for Business and Legal Affairs for AVX Corporation in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Mr. Slavitt is a frequent writer and lecturer, including the ABI Litigation Skills Symposium, and was one of the founding members of the ACC Committee on Ethics and Compliance Committee.