

Timothy W. Rogers is a Senior Attorney in the Employment Law and Benefits Section of the Law Department of Southern California Edison Company. With over 20 years of experience in the Law Department , Mr. Rogers' responsibilities include executive compensation, disability management, pension plans and fringe benefits. As staff counsel he advises the Company's Human Resources Department, senior management, and Compensation and Employee Benefits Committees on diverse issues pertaining to benefit plan design, compliance and administration.

Since beginning his career with the Company in 1985, Mr. Rogers has practiced in a variety of areas including employment law and benefits, securities and corporate governance, election law and litigation.

Mr. Rogers is co-chair of the ERISA Subcommittee of the ACC's Employment and Labor Law Committee and is a member of the Western Pension & Benefits Conference. He received a BA from Cal. State L.A. and is a graduate of Loyola Law School.