Modern Slavery Laws and Ethical Supply Chains: Tracking Global Trends and Preparing Your Business to Comply

In this Global Employer Solutions webinar, we'll explore the evolving landscape of modern slavery/supply chain transparency laws. We'll also provide tips on how your business can be proactive in preparing to comply with legal obligations, as well as meeting expectations of consumers, investors, and business partners as it relates to the risk of forced labor, child labor, and other forms of modern slavery in your company's operations and supply chain. We hope you can join us to hear from members of our team in Australia, the U.S., and the UK.
