2020 Washington Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel Diversity Scholarship Application

Name:
Address:
Email:
Phone:
Law School
Expected Year of Graduation
	•

ATTACH TO THIS APPLICATION:

- 1. A resume; and
- 2. An essay (1 -2 pages) describing the following:
 - Your professional goals, including any interest in working for a corporation, public sector work, government service, or legal practice;
 - Examples of your commitment to diversity, whether past, present, or future; and
 - Any demonstrated achievements.

BY SUBMITTING	THIS	APPLICATION	YOU	HEREBY	CERTIFY	THE	FOLLOWING	(Please	check a	II boxes	to confirm):

You are a first or second year law student currently enrolled in one of the Washington State law schools; You are not on academic probation; You have a demonstrated financial need, i.e. have received financial aid in the past; All information and statements provided by you in connection with this diversity scholarship application are true, correct, and not misleading; and You understand that the Washington Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel may verify your representations in this diversity scholarship application with your law school, and revoke and seek return of the scholarship award if we learn that the award was made to you based upon misleading information or documentation. If you are awarded a scholarship, the award will be sent directly to your law school and applied against your tuition balance for the 2020-2021 academic year.
You have a demonstrated financial need, i.e. have received financial aid in the past; All information and statements provided by you in connection with this diversity scholarship application are true, correct, and not misleading; and You understand that the Washington Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel may verify your representations in this diversity scholarship application with your law school, and revoke and seek return of the scholarship award if we learn that the award was made to you based upon misleading information or documentation. If you are awarded a scholarship, the award will be sent directly to your law school and applied		·
☐ All information and statements provided by you in connection with this diversity scholarship application are true, correct, and not misleading; and ☐ You understand that the Washington Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel may verify your representations in this diversity scholarship application with your law school, and revoke and seek return of the scholarship award if we learn that the award was made to you based upon misleading information or documentation. ☐ If you are awarded a scholarship, the award will be sent directly to your law school and applied		You are not on academic probation;
application are true, correct, and not misleading; and You understand that the Washington Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel may verify your representations in this diversity scholarship application with your law school, and revoke and seek return of the scholarship award if we learn that the award was made to you based upon misleading information or documentation. If you are awarded a scholarship, the award will be sent directly to your law school and applied		You have a demonstrated financial need, i.e. have received financial aid in the past;
You understand that the Washington Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel may verify your representations in this diversity scholarship application with your law school, and revoke and seek return of the scholarship award if we learn that the award was made to you based upon misleading information or documentation. If you are awarded a scholarship, the award will be sent directly to your law school and applied		All information and statements provided by you in connection with this diversity scholarship your representations in this diversity scholarship application with your law school, and revoke and seek return of the scholarship award if we learn that the award was made to you based upon misleading information or documentation. If you are awarded a scholarship, the award will be sent directly to your law school and applied	арр	lication are true, correct, and not misleading; and you retu info	r representations in this diversity scholarship application with your law school, and revoke and seek arn of the scholarship award if we learn that the award was made to you based upon misleading armation or documentation.

A complete application must be postmarked or emailed by April 3, 2020 to:

Washington Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel Diversity Scholarship Committee c/o Elida Moran, Managing Corporate Counsel

T-Mobile USA, Inc.

12920 SE 38th Street

Bellevue, WA 98006

Email: elida.moran@t-mobile.com