

NETWORK SPONSOR

OF THE YEAR APPLICATION

Application Period January 1, 2018 - June 30, 2019

ABOUT SEYFARTH

Message from the Chair - Tim Phillips

Fact: Lisa Damon and Jenny Lee of Seyfarth Shaw LLP are the most committed sponsors of the ACC. They work tirelessly to assist the LDMN leadership in planning and executing its strategic plan each year by producing speakers, programs, and content that continue to raise the bar. Lisa and Jenny, and the continued support of Seyfarth Shaw, are nothing short of magical. They are true unicorns!

Proof: See below and within

This application period has been full of excitement and growth for LDM. From January 2018 until October 2018, the leadership team sought to help members take their leadership and management skills to the next level by providing programming on important "hard skills" such as project management, process improvement, and change management. Beginning November 2018 until today, LDM's objective has been to elevate the "softer skills" which the LDM members desire to obtain. Communication, personal branding, facilitation, and professional development are just a few of the topics we've brought to the members. Seyfarth partnered with the LDM leadership team to make these two strategic objectives come to life.

Seyfarth consistently meets their annual sponsorship requirements, but they also assist the leadership team in creatively reaching our members. They are true teammates. Seyfarth's contributions to the LDMN, its leadership team, and, indeed to the ACC as a whole are too many to list. This application will lay out many of the ways Seyfarth continues to contribute to the LDMN. A full list of resources is also attached.

STRATEGIC PLANNING AND EXECUTION

Lisa Damon and Jenny Lee, from Seyfarth Shaw, eagerly embrace the LDMN's strategic planning process, and seek to improve it every year with fun, energy, grit, and innovative ideas. Prior to the network's year-end, Lisa and Jenny work with the leadership team to begin planning the following year, which kicks off at the LDMN business meeting held at Annual Meeting.

In 2018, Seyfarth helped the LDMN frame out a strategic plan which targeted the membership's desire to focus on their professional development. We heard our members when they said they wanted to learn more about the softer skills that would make them more effective and credible leaders.

Seyfarth is committed to helping lawyers in law departments become bold and fierce leaders by giving the tools to grow. With only a strategic plan and a vision to help our members, Seyfarth developed the "Be More Unicorn" theme designed to help lawyers identify the traits and skills they need to learn or grow in order to remain relevant in today's changing legal market. At the 2018 Annual Meeting, Seyfarth educated and entertained attendees in order to deliver the unicorn message. Hundreds of plushie unicorns help soften the mood, but Seyfarth armed the attendees with a roadmap to increasing their skill sets. At the business meeting, LDMN members were introduced to the road map and skills they'd have the opportunity to increase throughout the year.

Seyfarth carried this bold message in to the LDMN's monthly programming. Lisa and Jenny make it a priority to bring only the best to our members. Speakers, authors, and legal industry leaders alongside LDM leaders and members make up the roster. The 2018-2019 year has been an intense line-up of presentations focused on management skills, leadership skills, soft skills, emotional intelligence, and every once in a while, we address a pressing legal issue that law department members want to hear about. The May Legal Quick Hit on Communications and May Webinar on Building Your Brand had record breaking attendance.

CREATIVE MEMBER ENGAGEMENT

Lisa and Jenny continue to seek out creative and innovative ways to meet our members where they're at. They continuously brainstorm with the LDMN leadership on ways to increase member engagement.

In 2018, the LDM leadership created the 'In the Lead - Law Dept. Management' YouTube channel, and Lisa and Jenny continue to embrace the role of content creators. Each month, they produce a video preview of the LDM's Legal Quick Hit. In the early stages of the video process, we leveraged the face and voice of the LDM Chair, but Lisa and Jenny have again stretched the boundaries to engage the members in a different way. The videos not only include the Chair and other LDM leaders, but also include the speakers themselves. There are two examples pictured to the right.

The videos are posted on YouTube, LinkedIn, Twitter and eGroups. Views on the YouTube channel have increased by over 200%.

Lisa and Jenny do not stop there. Now, the LDM members also receive a video preview of upcoming webinars. On May 29, the LDM had the privilege of hosting Dorie Clark, a widely known author and speaker, for a webinar entitled 'Building Your Brand & Influence in Your Company.' The video prepared by Lisa and Jenny was picked up the ACC Legal Operations team and shared out to their members. Not only did the webinar have record breaking attendance, but the LDM was able to facilitate and deliver a webinar that reached beyond the LDM to members of the Legal Operations. Lisa and Jenny are working now to bring other cross-platform topics to ACC. Many of the "Be More Unicorn" traits are those that all can benefit from.

CREATIVE CONTENT ENGAGEMENT

Lisa and Jenny never back down from a challenge. The Network's Program Chair, Justin Martin, had the desire to engage the LDM members in a game that would build excitement for the 2019 Annual Meeting in Phoenix, AZ. The challenge was how to engage the members in an exciting and meaningful way. Without hesitation, Lisa and Jenny jumped into help Justin figure out the best way to execute. They took it a step further and developed a game that leverages the LDM content and resources. Members must engage with the resources in order to win! And, Seyfarth is giving away a $300 Amazon gift card. The excitement builds until September 30th. From there an extended version of the game will kick off until the Annual Meeting. Don't tell; there's another $200 Amazon gift card waiting in Phoenix for one lucky LDM member!

LDM's Resource Round-Up Terms

Members can view, listen to and/or participate in a number of LDM Resources between April 1 and September 30. Each resource will have a unique keyword (examples below) assigned. Resource keywords must be sent by text message to a unique text number (474747). Each entry will be logged into a database in order to identify the member with the most entries. Reporting will close on September 30th. Winner of a $300 Amazon gift card will be announced October 1, 2019 by text message back to the member from the 474747 number. The member will be instructed to email Jenny Lee at jlee@seyfarth.com so that the winner's name and email address can be obtained. The winner will be announced on e-Groups and social media. #LDMResourceRoundup.

ICYMI - CREATIVE CONTENT

Lisa and Jenny are committed to bringing fresh new content to the LDM members, and doing so in a creative and timely way.

In 2019, Seyfarth introduced the ICYMI Quicker Quick Hit to the LDM members. ICYMI (In Case You Missed It) is a one-page, to the point, synopsis of the monthly legal quick hit. ICYMI (example below) is delivered every month shortly after the monthly meeting. Members can get a quick digest of the monthly topic and are reminded they can listen to the entire monthly meeting by recording. This reflects yet again Seyfarth's commitment to high-quality content, and meeting members where they're at.

Seyfarth continues to provide a $50 Starbucks gift card at every monthly meeting. Each month a random number is selected from the participant list and that person wins $50. To drive membership participation, the monthly winner is announced in the monthly newsletter posted on e-Groups. See image below.

BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS BOOTCAMP: REBOOT

Presented by: Marissa Frerk, Associate General Counsel, Brookline Bancorp, Inc. and Tim Phillips, Chief Legal and Risk Officer, American Cancer Society

The ability to effectively communicate is a fundamental skill, but it requires training and exercise to hone the skill to elevate your practice as in-house counsel. In this session, Marissa and Tim provide tips that will help you create compelling presentations, draft clear and persuasive written communications, and employ effective collaboration and listening strategies. A more intense version of this session was held at the 2018 Annual Meeting in Austin. If you were unable to attend the annual meeting, you can listen by clicking here.

ICYMI

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION TIPS

1 YOUR OBJECTIVE

Get clear on the objective of your message and what action you are seeking from your audience. Is your message compelling or repelling? Other people's responses are often driven by emotions.

2 BUSINESS OBJECTIVE

How will your message affect your organization? Consider your company's reputation should your message be debated on social media.

3 TARGET AUDIENCE

Your target may be broader than you think. Who are you trying to influence? Are there additional targets if the message were to be leaked? How do you motivate both?

4 ACTION

State very clearly what action you want your audience to take. Remember, written communication lacks nuance and body language. Avoid grand or verbose statements.

5 BENEFITS

When seeking to compel, there must be a benefit for your audience. Remembering the impact of human emotions, it's effective to demonstrate value early.

6 SUPPORTING FACTS

Are there other factors that may persuade your target audience to comply with your desired action. Be clear to avoid derailing with fact overload.

7 MANDATORIES

If you have something in your communication that you need someone to do, make sure you tell them in a clear manner. Leave no room for interpretation.

8 TIMING

It isn't enough to craft a great communication to your target audience about an important action if you fail to tell them when it's due.

9 MEASUREMENT

How will you know you're done? How will you know when your communication is successful? Before delivering your communication ensure the outcome is something you can measure for success or failure. Knowing will improve results.

10 LOOK AND FEEL

We are humans communicating with humans that are challenged for time and focus. Make your communications visually appealing by using graphics, appealing layouts, color and different fonts. Show your words in pictures.

Are you playing Resource Round-Up? Text code LDM IC5 to 474747 to be entered to win $300

Law Department Management Quicker Quick Hits provide members with a snapshot of key points, tips, or takeaways covered in the monthly quick hit. In case you missed it, be sure to check out the full call recording for a more in-depth discussion and explanation of any tools or exercises.

OTHER LDM CONTRIBUTIONS

- Seyfarth trained and hosted on-site in Atlanta a group of LDM leaders in Six Sigma Yellow Belt September 2018
- Seyfarth is a consistent contributor and project manager of the LDM's new constituted monthly newsletters that are posted on e-Groups. Seyfarth provides content and provides resources to make the newsletter more visually appealing to members.
- In 2019, Seyfarth started the ICYMI (In Case You Missed It) Quicker Quick Hit. This resource is a one-page synopsis of the month legal quick hit, providing members an easily digestible version of the presentation if they couldn't make the call.
- The Resource Round-Up Game, is an on-going member activity geared at increasing exposure and consumption of LDM resources. Inspired by the LDM Programs Chair, Justin Martin, and executed by Seyfarth, the game is a member reported option (via Text Messaging) to let us know they consumed content pieces, attended LQHs or webcasts, or watched the YouTube Videos. The contest runs April 1 through September 31 and the member with the most reports will win a $300 Amazon gift card provided by Seyfarth. The month of October will have an extra game for the annual meeting where another $200 Amazon gift card will be won by a LDM member.
- Seyfarth continues to manage the creation of all monthly YouTube videos. The videos are shared on e-Groups, LinkedIn and Twitter in order to market upcoming Legal Quick Hits and Webinars.
- In order to boost attendance to the monthly meetings, Seyfarth provides a $50 Starbucks card to one randomly drawn attendee.
- Seyfarth provides a Sponsor Update on each of the monthly member calls. In addition to providing members with free resources provided by Seyfarth, Lisa and Jenny also provide technology tips or readings suggested by clients to add more value to the monthly call.
