

2019 ACC AUSTRALIA CORPORATE LAWYER AWARD FINALISTS

Excellence in Corporate Social Responsibility

Nick Willetts, General Manager, Thales Australia

Nick Willetts uses his influence as a leader in the legal profession to create greater opportunities for those who have not experienced the privilege that many take for granted. He does this through mentoring those from under-represented population groups, working with the John Mac Foundation board and championing diversity and inclusion in his workplace and the NSW ACC Executive Committee.

Pernod Ricard Winemakers

Pernod Ricard Winemakers' Legal Team is responsible for our 'Good Times From a Good Place' Sustainability & Responsibility 2030 Platform, including objectives supporting the UN SDG's. Our 4 pillars (Nurturing Terroir, Valuing People, Circular Making & Responsible Hosting) address all aspects of our products' life cycle, from grape to grass.

Shao Ma, Company Secretary & Legal Counsel, Lesso

Shao Ma made recommendations to the board of Lesso, with head office in Hong Kong, to ensure that local interests were protected in Australia. Her work generated policies creating better working conditions, inclusion and a company culture that makes social impact an important part of strategic planning.
