

2019 ACC AUSTRALIA CORPORATE LAWYER AWARD FINALISTS

Legal Team of the Year – Large (10+ lawyers)

Australia Post

Australia Post's Legal Team has helped deliver key strategic business and community initiatives, such as the Bank@Post refresh, international acquisitions, digital identification services and delivery service reforms. Collegiate and collaborative, and with a deep understanding of the business, the team is relied on by senior leaders to help drive commercial outcomes and protect the organisation's legal and reputational interests.

DXC.technology

DXC Technology

The Australia DXC Technology Legal team continually embraces change as it transforms to a digital legal department. The highly-productive team delivers measurable value to the business and our end customers with a unique model that leverages innovative technology, award-winning contracting approaches, and a deep commitment to teamwork and professional development.

Medibank

The Medibank legal team has been instrumental in advising the business in respect of the most significant government reforms to the industry in decades, as well as supporting the business to launch an innovative rewards program and health and wellbeing platform.