

Jason Levin founded Ready, Set, Launch, LLC®, after a career in brand management at Unilever, consulting at Accenture and law firm branding at Vault.com. Career, business development, and outplacement coaching and training are his passions. Jason coaches Amlaw 100 and in-house counsel attorneys of all backgrounds and works with attorneys in private, non-profit and government sectors, from early in their career through retirement. Jason has been a moderator and a speaker at national conferences including the Corporate Legal Operations Consortium (CLOC), Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD), and the National Association for Law Placement (NALP). During times of uncertainty, he can further work with you to execute an actionable plan, so you can take clear steps towards a career change or a transition into retirement.

Jason has appeared on WTTG Fox 5 and has been quoted in The Wall Street Journal, Money, Fortune and MarketWatch on business development and career-related topics. Jason sits on the board of the Capital Chapter of the Legal Marketing Association and also writes on business development and career management topics for the legal website, Above the Law. Jason is based in Washington, DC, where he is married to a lovely red-headed attorney and they have two adorable red-headed sons.

Types of coaching topics

- 1) Resume and LinkedIn reviews
- 2) Interview coaching (phone, pre-recorded and video conference)
- 3) Handling a layoff or potential layoff
- 4) Retirement and career transitions – thinking about your next steps
- 5) Managing change and your personal brand
- 6) Influencing stakeholders in a remote setting