

Natalie Butto Wills
Association of Corporate Counsel
Wellness and Support program
Spring 2020

Bio

Natalie Butto Wills empowers Learning, Leading, and Living Well® with diverse expertise in business, law, and education.

A Management and Leadership Professor, Advisor, Counsel, Coach, and TEDx Speaker, she advises and coaches lawyers and leaders; speaks and presents; and facilitates professional development programs and retreats. She founded and leads Leadership Well™, a network and portal, empowering Conscious Counsel® Net and Mindful Managers®.

Her experience includes serving as a Fortune 500 in-house legal counsel and executive; a law school assistant dean; and an attorney with a global practice. She has served on regional, national, and international boards; corporate diversity/inclusion committees; and as a leader in professional, alumni, and community associations, including ACC.

Natalie Butto Wills earned a JD at Georgetown; MBA in Marketing and Information Technology at NYU; and certifications in coaching, organizational psychology, diversity training, and yoga/mindfulness.

A 1st generation American, Natalie communicates in several languages and savors life. She is committed to endowing a new American Dream scholarship fund which will grant scholarships in perpetuity at one of the most diverse college in the US. where she teaches.

Coaching Topics

- Vision and Values
- Mindful Management
- Balance and Integration
- Leadership / Lawyers as Leaders
- "Wills, Walls, Wells®" Moving beyond obstacles towards goals

Scheduling

<https://www.nataliebuttowills.com/services/advising-coaching/comp/>

