

Sponsoring an ACC Top Ten

Top Tens are some of ACC's most popular resources. A recent Top Ten resource authored by a member received over 1,800 pageviews in a month and a half. The impact your article can make is truly stupendous!

In terms of exposure, you will receive the following as a Top Ten sponsor:

- Firm/company name and logo at the top of the Top Ten;
- Author's byline linked back to attorney bio on website of your choice, or to their LinkedIn profile or company email address;
- Firm/company name listed after author's byline;
- After publication, Top Ten distributed directly to ACC practice area-specific members through relevant Forums' Legal Resources Update, listing sponsor's name beside resource;
- Top Ten distributed to all members via Monthly Member Update ("MMU") email;
- Resource listed with sponsor's name in ACC/Lexology Newsstand updates and search results;
- Potential promotion via ACC social media channels;
- Top Ten linked to other on-point ACC resources and at ACC events as an additional resource where relevant.

Writing and sponsoring a Top Ten is an excellent way to demonstrate your expertise to ACC's 45,000+ in-house counsel members in more than 85 countries. Because these are not password protected on our website and anyone searching for related topics on the internet can read them, Top Ten sponsorship also allows you to promote your expertise to the masses with ACC's endorsement.
