

Presenter Biographies

Erik Eisenmann, Partner, Chair, Labor & Employment Practice Group, Husch Blackwell LLP.

Erik is a Husch Blackwell partner and chair of the firm's Labor & Employment practice group. Erik helps businesses manage their most valuable assets – their employees. He counsels employers of all sizes, from small businesses to Fortune 100 companies, often helping them draft and enforce employment contracts, restrictive covenants and other workplace agreements. He assists clients in the financial services, manufacturing, healthcare and cannabis industries, among others. While Erik's goal is to help his clients stay out of court, his substantial experience before state and federal courts and administrative agencies across the country has prepared him to vigorously defend their interests when litigation is necessary.

Whether it is a workplace safety matter before OSHA, a traditional labor matter resulting in a grievance or unfair labor practice charge, or a sensitive internal investigation involving allegations of fraud or harassment, clients rely on Erik's proven ability to guide them to positive resolutions.

Ronda Warren, Director & Assistant General Counsel - Labor and Employment at Adient

Ronda is Director & Assistant General Counsel - Labor and Employment at Adient. She has served as North America's Labor and Employment Counsel for Adient since its spinoff from Johnson Controls in 2016. During that spinoff, Ronda led the separation of Adient's automotive labor and employment work from Johnson Controls. Prior to her role with Adient, Ronda was Senior Counsel at Johnson Controls and Senior Managing Attorney at ManpowerGroup. Ronda earned her law degree from Hamline School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Wisconsin Madison.