

2020 Deal Maker of the Year

Mei Loke

General Counsel | Webcentral Group

Following a long period of growth through acquisitions from 2014, over the last year, Mei has led the legal function through rapid divestments of the TPP Reseller and Enterprise divisions, and the ongoing sale of the remaining SMB business, which is anticipated to be completed later in the year.

Andrew Selim

General Counsel & Company Secretary | Home Consortium

Andrew Selim is General Counsel and Company Secretary of Home Consortium, an internally managed Australian property group focused on ownership, development and management which is built on a platform of big brands and hyper-convenience. Andrew has over 17 years of local and international experience in real estate and corporate law. He was recently named in the globally prestigious GC Powerlist Australia 2019 and has been consistently recognised in Doyles Best Lawyers Guide in 2019 and 2020 as a leading in-house lawyer.

Krista Stewart

General Counsel Corporate | Orica

Krista Stewart demonstrates excellence, a superb work ethic and a commercial approach to problem solving, while leading various cross-border and complex legal workstreams to successfully deliver Orica's transformational A$302m acquisition of an 83.5% interest in Peruvian explosives manufacturer & distributor Exsa S.A., and associated A$500m capital raising.
