

Biography

IGM

India Martin is a 25-year veteran of financial services and a member of the Forbes Coaches Council. She has held several global C-Suite roles including expatriate assignments in London, Frankfurt, Tokyo and Hong Kong. In her final role at JPMorgan, India was Managing Director & Global Chief Operating Officer for Investment Banking Technology and Operations where she had multi-billion-dollar budgetary management responsibility for 15,000 staff in more than 40 global locations.

India is a globally recognized leadership expert and coach with a clientele of Fortune 100 and C-Suite executives from around the world. Formerly an adjunct professor of Corporate Education at Temple University in Japan, she is a well-known keynote and panel speaker. India is on the coaching faculty at Georgetown University for the Exec Master's in Leadership program and is also on the coaching faculty of the New York City Bar Association's Leadership Institute.

She is the National Association Of Female Executives 2019/2020 Entrepreneur of The Year,

During her time in Europe, India was named one of the 50 top businesswomen in Europe and Top 100 Black executives in the UK. India is the President Emeritus of City Women's Network, a professional body for senior women in corporate, third sector and entrepreneurial industries where she spearheaded and developed the methodology for the "Corporate Board Readiness Program". For this work, she has been featured in publications such as Forbes, Marketing Week, Computer Weekly and Harpers Bazaar.

India is an expert at helping senior executives to build profile. Stakeholder and transition management, positioning, succession and promotion staging are central to her toolkit. She is an expert strategist supporting leaders in business development, developing operating frameworks, building high performing teams and organizational transformation.

India is a published writer, speaks fluent French and functional Japanese. She attended Spelman College and London Business school.