

2020 Mentee of the Year

Alix Cameron

Legal Counsel | University of New South Wales

Alix is a senior lawyer at UNSW who provides strategic legal advice in complex regulatory environments. She has extensive experience advising in complex stakeholder environments on a diverse range of commercial, regulatory and disputes issues, particularly in education and philanthropy.

Chris Clark

Senior Solicitor | Landcom

Chris Clark is a senior solicitor at the NSW Government's property developer, Landcom. He has taken full advantage of the opportunity of being a mentee and has used it to great advantage during the transition from private practice to in-house counsel.

Linh Tran

Legal Counsel & Chief Compliance Officer | The Arnott's Group

Linh epitomised what it means to be a mentee. Drawing on the experience and wisdom of her mentor, Linh crystallised a plan to achieve her goals which she pursued with vigour. With optimism, determination and persistence along her journey, she challenged herself, took risks and ultimately landed her dream job.
