

Accessing the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) resource library via the ACC Hong Kong website

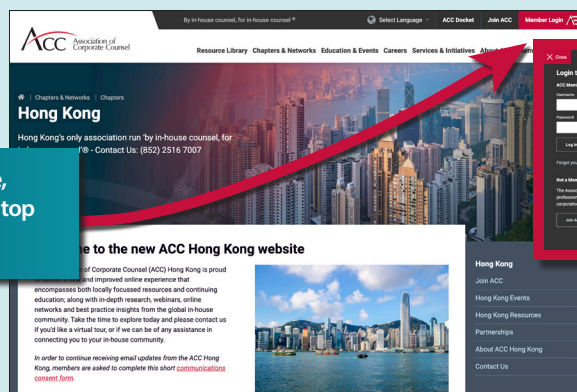

Did you know Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) Hong Kong members have access to a resource library containing more than 24,000 sample contracts, checklists, white papers, articles and webcasts? You don't need to spend your time searching multiple subscription databases for the answer.

If it's for in-house counsel, it's in the ACC resource library.

To get started...

1

Login to the ACC Hong Kong website, via the Member Login button on the top right-hand corner of the screen...

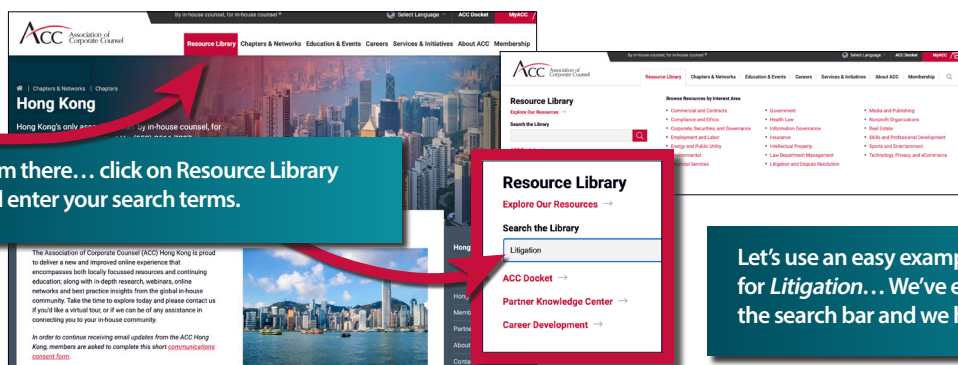

Once you've logged in... you'll see MyACC.

MyACC

2

From there... click on Resource Library and enter your search terms.

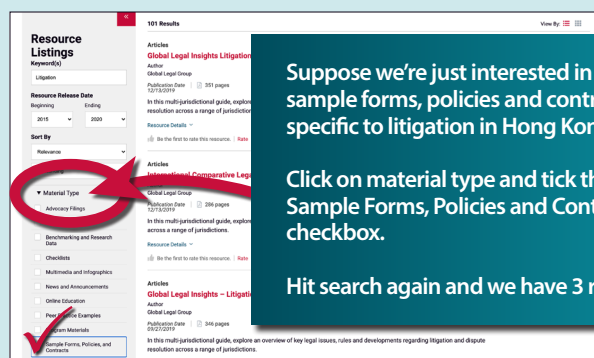

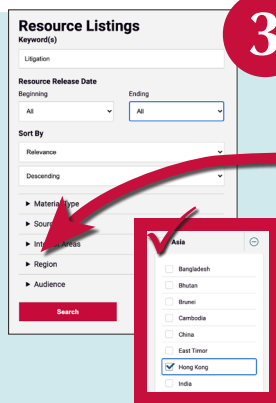

Let's use an easy example. We're looking for Litigation... We've entered that in the search bar and we have 1482 results.

3

Why don't we narrow the search just to Hong Kong?

Click in Region
→ Asia → Hong Kong.

Now we have 101 resources.

Suppose we're just interested in sample forms, policies and contracts, specific to litigation in Hong Kong?

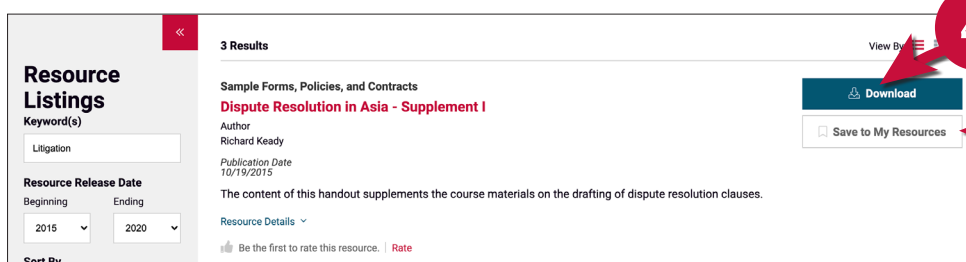

Click on material type and tick the Sample Forms, Policies and Contracts checkbox.

Hit search again and we have 3 results.

4

Click Download on the right of screen to access them now.

Or, you can click Save to My Resources to save them to your own personal profile, to save you searching them for next time.
