

Speaker Bio – Jenna Yott, Associate General Counsel, Abel Services

Jenna Yott is Associate General Counsel with Able Services, the largest family-owned building maintenance and facilities engineering company in the U.S. with more than 20,000 employees in more than 30 states. She counsels business leaders and human resources on all manner of legal issues involving employee and traditional labor relations as well as how to stay compliant with new and existing legislation. She also oversees employment and labor litigation matters, including class actions and agency investigations. Jenna previously was a litigation associate with Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher in San Francisco. She graduated from Drew University and received her law degree from University of California, Berkeley.