Dear ACC NCR Members and Sponsors:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the ACC National Capital Region Chapter it is my pleasure to share this 2025 Chapter Directory. We hope this will be a useful resource as you engage with the chapter and our in-house community.

As ACC NCR turns 45, we have grown into a strong, vibrant organization, with more than 2,500 members across Virginia, DC, and nearby Maryland. Each year we offer dozens of legal education programs that address critical topics of interest to in-house attorneys, and we strive to maintain the highest quality programming, while expanding the range of opportunities for you to grow professionally and build new relationships. The vast majority of our legal education events qualify for Virginia CLE credit. All of this excellent programming is made possible by our more than 200 volunteer leaders, over 45 sponsors, and a team of dedicated staff members.

ACC NCR was a lifesaver for me when I began my in-house career. The CLE programs and networking opportunities were invaluable as I worked to get my feet under me in a new role and, as I have advanced in my profession, those offerings and opportunities have only become stronger and more valuable to me.

At the same time, I have marveled at the growth of the chapter's efforts in service of our members and the larger community in which we live and work. Our career development activities have become more robust, and we have expanded our DEI and leadership development programming. This all occurs while we continue serving the DMV community. The chapter's pro bono and community service work flies somewhat under the radar, yet it is the one thing that combines all the rest: using our skills (legal or otherwise), collaborating with others, and leading. This year we will highlight service, because being of service – to our colleagues, our profession and our larger community – is integral to who we are as a chapter. A flip through the pages of this directory only hints at the myriad opportunities to plug in and help out through ACC NCR.

Thank you to everyone who is already volunteering! I encourage you to keep it up. I am excited to shine a light on what we are already doing, work with members and sponsors to find ways to do more, and challenge all members to get involved this year in ACC NCR's many service opportunities. Please consider participating in at least one thing because that one thing, like a pebble dropped in water, has a ripple effect that benefits so many in our community.

Please feel free to reach out to committee leaders and members of the Board of Directors (all listed on pages 3-23) to offer ideas and feedback on how we can better serve you and the in-house community. And, of course, our great staff is always ready to help in any way possible.

With warm regards and gratitude for your engagement in ACC NCR,

Kathi Westcott

CORPORATE AND SECURITIES LAW COMMITTEE

The Corporate and Securities Law Committee offers programs revolving around cutting-edge legal and regulatory developments affecting both public and private companies. Topics include: issues facing audit committees and other board committees with oversight responsibilities; securities and disclosure developments; and general corporate practice and compliance strategies. It is the intent of the Corporate and Securities Law Committee to better enable in-house counsel to successfully address issues facing their respective companies and broaden their knowledge base to provide accurate, ethical, and prudent legal counsel.

CORPORATE SCHOLARS COMMITTEE

The mission of ACC NCR's Corporate Scholars Program is to give students from law schools in our service area an introduction to in-house practice, a career option about which they might know little, and to develop a diversity pipeline of future in-house counsel. The definition of diversity for the program is very broad, encompassing not only gender, race, and ethnicity, but also socioeconomic background and the student's education and career path. The goal is to provide opportunities for populations within law schools that may lack access to or knowledge about in-house practice. Since its creation in 2004, the Corporate Scholars Program has placed more than 210 students in summer internships with member companies and organizations. We regularly participate on panels and at career fairs organized by the law schools in our area to provide information about in-house careers.

PRO BONO COMMITTEE

The Pro Bono Committee co-hosts a number of pro bono clinics each year, including several in collaboration with the DC Bar Pro Bono Center, Legal Services of Northern Virginia, Maryland Legal Aid, and Whitman-Walker Legal Services. In addition, the Pro Bono Committee is developing materials and hosting events to educate members about opportunities and solutions to challenges, as well as sharing information about pro bono projects hosted by others that are a good fit for in-house counsel and their colleagues.

SMALL LAW DEPARTMENT COMMITTEE

The Small Law Department Committee is designed for members who either (a) practice in, or are concerned with issues relating to, small law departments or (b) practice in larger departments either as a legal “generalist” or at a remote location with few lawyers. (There is no specific size for a “small department,” but one to five attorneys is a good guide.) Members may be at any level in the department; this group is not restricted to CLOs. The group may also be of interest to members who are thinking of transitioning to a small department. The group’s meetings are designed to allow participants to share their questions and approaches to issues of common interest in ensuring that the small law department meets the needs of the organization.

STREET LAW COMMITTEE

The Street Law Legal Diversity Pipeline Program connects legal professionals with local high schools to provide an educational and inspirational experience to the students. ACC NCR partners with EchoStar/Hughes to host classroom sessions at Clarksburg High School in Clarksburg, Maryland, followed by a capstone celebration at the company’s headquarters. We partner with ACC Global and the ACC Foundation to host classroom sessions at Potomac High School in Oxon Hill, Maryland, followed by a capstone celebration at ACC headquarters in Washington, DC. The information provided to students through Street Law can be life-changing, whether they pursue a career in law or are simply better informed about their rights and how to handle situations they will encounter. Volunteers share that participation is rewarding for them as well!

FIND YOUR IN-HOUSE COMMUNITY

ACC is the only global association serving the unique needs of more than 45,000 in-house lawyers, at every career stage.

INFORMATION

ACC has curated resources based on substantive needs, all with the goal of helping you better serve your organization.

- Access sample contracts, policies, and forms or whitepapers.
- Learn how to optimize your legal department through the ACC Legal Operations Maturity Model.
- Benchmark your legal department in staffing, spend, workload, law firm usage, technology adoption, and performance scoring.
- ACC Newsstand and ACC Docket provide in-depth and practical information that keep you on the cutting edge of your practice.

ACC captured my heart because of its educational priorities, networking opportunities, and advocacy initiatives around the world. ACC is infused with leaders within the organization, the board, and its membership that are also dedicated to service. ACC makes stronger, informed lawyers, and has provided resources like mentors, training, and best practices.

- LATANYA LANGLEY,
GENERAL COUNSEL &
CORPORATE SECRETARY, BIC

EDUCATION

Whether you are new to in-house or stepping into the CLO role, ACC has programs and education tailored to every stage of your in-house career.

- Learn from your desk with FREE live CLE and on-demand recordings.
- Attend year-round events such as ACC Annual Meeting, Corporate Counsel University®, and GC Summit. As a practicing counsel, law department manager, or CLO, we have the in person learning that will elevate your skills.
- Share your expertise by authoring an article for the ACC Docket, serving as faculty at a conference, or volunteering as a chapter or network leader.

NETWORKING

ACC is for in-house counsel, by in-house counsel®. Your community of peers is unmatched.

- Attend local or regional chapter events. CLE/CPD, networking and leadership opportunities are available globally.
- 20 FREE practice area networks for topic-specific conversations and content.
- Contact fellow members through the ACC member directory – available exclusively to ACC members, or through our online forums, where you can seek advice or share expertise.

HISTORY

- The Washington Metropolitan Area Corporate Counsel Association ("WMACCA") was founded in 1980 to "provide a forum for discussion of the concerns of corporate legal counsel in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area." We were one of the first organizations of corporate staff attorneys in the United States.
- ACC was founded in 1982 by a group of general counsel who believed that in-house counsel needed their own organization focused exclusively on in-house issues and networks.
- WMACCA affiliated with ACC in late 1983 as the Washington Metro Area chapter.
- In 2006, WMACCA broadened its service area from Washington, D.C. and the surrounding Virginia and Maryland suburbs, to include all ACC members throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia.
- In January 2015, WMACCA became the ACC National Capital Region chapter, in order to better describe the area it serves and more closely identify with ACC and other chapters.

Members of ACC enjoy a number of valuable benefits, including:

- In-person and online networking opportunities through chapters and networks (see <https://www.acc.com/chapters-networks/networks>), plus blogs, Member-to-Member Community (including eGroups) and customizable member profiles. The networking resources also include an online membership directory that is searchable by name, title, company name, chapter, and more. In sum, you get a virtual rolodex of in-house attorneys at your disposal.
- A subscription to the award-winning ACC Docket, a monthly journal featuring articles written by corporate counsel on issues you face daily.
- Numerous continuing education opportunities, such as online courses, webcasts, and other educational events.
- A daily newsfeed with updates on a range of legal topics, completely customizable by topic and jurisdiction.
- Access to the ACC In-house Jobline, the premier electronic employment resource for in-house jobseekers and employers; and the ability to maintain your membership at reduced cost should you lose your in-house position.
- Access to a comprehensive library of legal and law-department management resources including sample forms and policies, checklists, articles, and surveys, including:
 - There are more than 100 downloadable InfoPaks that include articles, sample forms and policies, and case law on an array of topics, such as conflicts and waivers, records retention, outside counsel management and technology. Quick Counsel research guides provide brief but accurate overviews of timely in-house topics. Forms and Policies feature sample contract clauses, memoranda, and policies. Top Ten resources focus on a key issue and provide a list of tips to help you better understand the matter at hand. And Leading Practice Profiles share the knowledge and experience of your peers across a variety of industries and legal departments.
 - ACC Contracts Portal – The Contract Advisor provides access to model contracts, thousands of sample clauses, and allows you to run draft language through a benchmark tool to identify any missing or uncommon clauses, download model forms and customize your contracts. In addition, it has a library of valuable resources on negotiations.
 - ACC Compliance Training Portal – You can find a variety of resources specifically designed to help you meet your internal compliance and ethics training needs.
 - Chief Legal Officer resources that provide information on the executive, legal and department management roles of today's CLO.
- ACC's Monthly Member Update, an e-newsletter that highlights valuable resources to help you do your job better, faster, and more cost-effectively, such as ACC Docket features, upcoming educational programs, and webcasts.
- A Member Rewards Program, as well as Discounts and direct access to useful litigation and matter management tools and resources through the ACC Alliance, a partnership with top-tier legal and business service providers.
- The highlight of the year is the ACC Annual Meeting, which will be held in Philadelphia, PA, and will run October 19-22, 2025. The meeting will offer corporate practitioners more than 100 sessions to choose from. Programming tracks - developed by in-house counsel for in-house counsel - will provide a wide range of legal and management topics including intellectual property, litigation, labor, and employment, corporate and securities, technology, and leadership and management skills.

CONTACT INSTRUCTIONS

Members looking for contact information for a member of ACC NCR or another chapter? Would you like to know who the members are at a particular company? You can find that information and more in the online ACC Global Member Directory.

STEP 1

On acc.com, click the red button to log into your member account

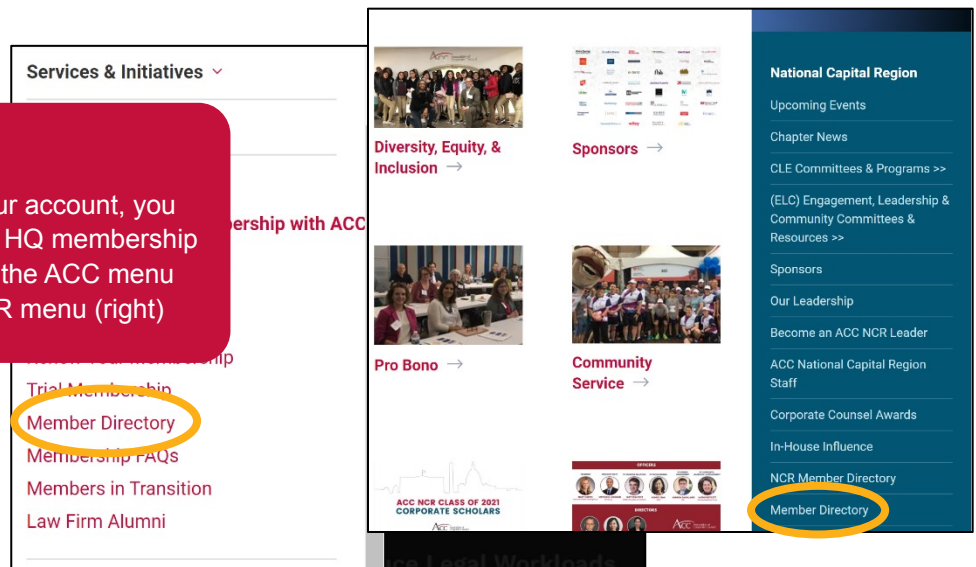

STEP 2

Enter your username and password (ACC NCR does not have the ability to reset this information)

A screenshot of the 'Login to MyACC' form. It includes fields for 'Username' and 'Password', a 'Log in' button, and a link for 'Forgot your username or password?'. The form is titled 'Login to MyACC' and 'ACC Members'.

STEP 3

Once logged into your account, you can access the ACC HQ membership directory either from the ACC menu (left) or the ACC NCR menu (right)

STEP 4

Now you have access to a searchable database with information for nearly all ACC members!

A screenshot of the 'Member Directory' search interface. It features a 'Find a Member' section with search filters for 'Search' (name and company), 'Chapter' (National Capital Region), 'Country' (- Any -), 'Area of Expertise', and 'Network'. There are 'Apply' and 'Reset' buttons.
