UPCOMING PROGRAMMING

CRYPTOCURRENCY FRAUD AND INSOLVENCY: IMPLICATIONS FOR FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS AND IN-HOUSE COUNSEL

As cryptocurrency continues to intersect with traditional financial institutions, in-house legal teams are increasingly confronted with fraud, insolvency, and regulatory risk involving digital assets. This session will explore recent trends in cryptocurrency fraud and Chapter 11 proceedings, with a focus on the practical implications for banks, financial institutions, and their legal departments. Panelists will discuss risk exposure, regulatory considerations, litigation and recovery issues, and key takeaways for in-house counsel navigating crypto-related matters.

REGULATORY CORNER

Recent developments highlight an evolving but still uncertain regulatory framework for digital assets. Federal banking guidance emphasizes risk management and safety and soundness in crypto-asset custody, alongside broader policy concerns around de-risking and supervisory discretion. At the same time, SEC enforcement trends and continued DOJ and SEC actions against crypto exchanges reflect ongoing scrutiny of market conduct, even as agencies work to clarify jurisdictional boundaries and regulatory expectations.

MEET THE FSN LEADERSHIP TEAM!

Elizabeth Davidson
Regulatory Counsel
Comerica Bank (Formerly
FSN Membership Chair)

WHAT IS ONE UNIQUE THING ABOUT YOU? (FUN FACT!)

I grew up in Iowa, in the midst of candidates and cornfields. That means... my hometown of Bettendorf, IA bordered many farms, and I was also highly involved in politics due to the Iowa straw poll, and have met over 10 presidential candidates, working for a few.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

I am currently consulting for PNC bank to assist in the heavily anticipated Basel III Endgame proposal. Prior to this fixed-term role, I was regulatory counsel for Comerica Bank - which was recently bought by Fifth Third, so I am looking for a permanent placement!

My work for Comerica consisted of working with the business teams on regulatory remediation, and drafting and coordinating all responses with the Federal Reserve, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, and other regulatory agencies. I also worked with bank executive leadership on regulatory advocacy and led the government affairs efforts for our legal team.

HOW HAS ACC HELPED YOUR CAREER?

ACC has had a tremendous impact on both my personal and professional aspects of my life. I have made some of my best friends through the organization, when I joined in Oklahoma City. I became more involved and joined the board, as Treasurer, Secretary, and eventually President of the Oklahoma Chapter. Through that experience, and eventually my experience now in the Dallas Chapter and with FSN, I have found myself to have a greater sense of "belonging" to a very kind and engaged group of attorneys.
