

the in-house bar association <sup>SM</sup>

Material Type: Program Materials

Title: An Ethical Minefield

Source: Original script courtesy of Popham, Haik, Schnobrich & Kaufman, Ltd., Minneapolis, MN.

The Internal Investigation: An Ethical Minefield for Corporate Counsel in Three Scenes

TO: FACULTY

FROM: FRED KREBS

Re: THE INTERNAL INVESTIGATION: AN ETHICAL MINEFIELD FOR CORPORATE COUNSEL IN THREE SCENES

Please find attached a copy of ACCA's ethics program, THE INTERNAL INVESTIGATION: AN ETHICAL MINEFIELD FOR CORPORATE COUNSEL IN THREE SCENES. You will find two versions of the script. One for the faculty, containing the suggested answers for the discussion questions. The second is for the audience and contains only the dialogue.

To present the program, you will need approximately four individuals to read the script and "role play". We suggest a panel of two to four individuals with a moderator to address discussion questions. Successful programs have used panelists with diverse legal backgrounds such as in-house lawyers, judges, legal ethics professors and lawyers in private practice. We encourage audience participation.

Please contact Jim Merklinger, Senior Attorney, 202/293-4103, ext. 326, or email merklinger@acca.com, with your suggestions or comments to improve this program.

---

Back to Top

American Corporate Counsel Association. 1025 Connecticut Ave, NW, Suite 200, Washington, DC 20036-5425. 202/293-4103. webmistress@acca.com. © Copyright 1999 American Corporate Counsel Association. All rights reserved.